SUSPICIOUS DEATH INVESTIGATION IN BARRIO LOGAN

(San Diego) San Diego Police Department Homicide Unit detectives are investigating the suspicious death of a transient male found in Barrio Logan this morning.

On July 26, 2008, at 7:22 a.m., officers were dispatched to a report of a body found beneath a blanket in the south alley of 1800 National Avenue. Officers arrived and determined the subject was indeed deceased and had minor trauma to his face. Officers determined the subject frequents this alley and often sleeps there as well.

The cause of death is unknown at this time pending further examination to be conducted by the Medical Examiner's office. The decedent has been identified as 53-year-old Alan Wilcox.

Anyone with information regarding the death of Alan Wilcox is encouraged to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-TIPS.
